Affordable Rental Housing

Q Who is Eligible?

A Individuals and families with modest incomes are eligible for our housing. Some of our apartments are reserved for individuals with disabilities or families with very low incomes as the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) defines. We strive for inclusive communities that welcome people from all backgrounds.

Q How can Residential Opportunities, Inc. (ROI) help?

A Homestead Housing Services (HHS) is ROI's housing arm, and was created to provide our most vulnerable citizens with safe, attractive, and affordable housing for people in Kalamazoo County.

HHS helps people take giant strides toward independence by providing this most basic of human needs, Affordable Housing.

Q What is Affordable Rental Housing?

A Finding safe, affordable housing can be a daunting task for people with disabilities and for low-income households. Our housing is located in clean, safe, quiet residential neighborhoods with easy access to public transportation. Our housing is primarily apartment communities throughout Kalamazoo County. Some barrier-free housing is also available. Rent is established according to HUD low-income housing guidelines.
